Code of Ethical Conduct Agreement and School Information Form

SAMPLE

Everyone on the Mock Trial team is required to read this agreement and sign next to their typed name on this sheet.
The South Carolina Bar possesses discretion to impose sanctions, up to and including forfeiture or disqualification, for any misconduct or violation of the Code of Ethical Conduct occurring while a team is present to participate at any of the Mock Trial competitions.

1. The Rules of the Competition and this Code of Ethical Conduct will be followed by all participants in the South Carolina Bar's Mock Trial Competitions. Coaches will discourage willful violations of the letter and/or the spirit of the Rules of this Code.
2. The use of alcohol, drugs and weapons is forbidden at all competition sites and at all mock trial sponsored events.
3. Team members, coaches and other observers promise to participate in all events associated with the South Carolina Bar's Mock Trial competitions with the highest standards of professionalism behavior showing respect for their fellow team members, opponents, coaches, judging panel volunteers, competition staff, volunteers and all other persons before, during, and after the competitions.
4. The South Carolina Bar's Mock Trial competitions are designed for teams who behave themselves as professionals in and out of the courtroom. Official Team Members, Coaches and other observers must follow appropriate courtroom and courthouse decorum at all times, both inside and outside the courtroom.
5. Displays of bad sportsmanship at any time during the competition, including any additional Mock Trial events are prohibited. Whether winning or losing, team members, coaches and all other participants are expected to be gracious and supportive of other teams.
6. No official team member, coach or other observer associated with the team may only view their team competing.
7. It is expected that teams and their individual members will respect their surroundings; will follow all published courthouse regulations; will use appropriate receptacles for all trash; will leave restrooms and all other court and common areas of all venues in good order; and, will otherwise behave as young professionals.
8. All students listed on this form and the school roster (turned in on competition day) are registered at the same school registered.
9. All Mock Trial participants (students, teacher coaches, and attorney coaches) agree to the following Mock Trial Oath: I will maintain the respect and courtesy due to courts of justice, judicial officers, and those who assist them; To opposing parties, counsel, and witnesses, I pledge fairness, integrity, and civility, not only in court, but also in all written and oral communications; I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to me only such means as are consistent with trust and honor and the principles of professionalism, and will never seek to mislead an opposing party, the judge, or jury; and I will maintain the dignity of the legal system and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged.

By signing my name next to my typed name below, I am indicating that I have read and understand the statements above and I will abide by the Rules of the Competition and this Code of Ethical Conduct throughout the duration of the Mock Trial competitions. I understand that a violation of this Code by any one of the members of this team may result in sanctions including, but not limited to, the team's immediate elimination from the Mock Trial competitions and forfeiture of all fees and awards (if applicable).
