Corporate, Banking & Securities Law Section

This year's Corporate, Banking & Securities Law section program will feature outstanding presenters bringing you up to date on developments in key areas for section members.

Professor Jim Burkhard, Senator Malloy and Rep. Wm. Weston Newton will discuss the status of the proposed Revised Limited Liability Company Act and other legislative developments that may affect business in South Carolina. Professor Philip Lacy will tell you what you need to know about the 2013 South Carolina UCC amendments. Sue Stoffer will shed light on aspects of Obamacare that a general corporate counselor needs to be aware of. Jeff Allen will discuss the 2013 SC High Growth Small Business Job Creation Act to help you ensure that your clients don't miss this angel investor incentive tax credit. Former SEC staff attorney Mike Johnson will review the SEC's new rules permitting general solicitation and general advertising, but disqualifying "bad actors," in Rule 506 private placements and discuss other SEC developments in the continuing wake of Dodd-Frank. Mark Sharpe will bring you up to speed on UPL, and David Merline will review significant LLC case law developments.

Don't miss this once-a-year opportunity to network with your section colleagues and get the latest and greatest news in corporate, banking, and securities practice from outstanding presenters!
