

South Carolina Tort Law Update

Friday, February 14
Bar Conference Center
1501 Park St., Columbia

via 13 video-CLE sites statewide and via Live Webcast

ABOUT THE SEMINAR

The South Carolina Tort Law Update has become an institution and annual favorite for attorneys who practice personal injury insurance and tort law. Course Planners John Nichols and Scott Moise have recruited an outstanding faculty of jurists and practitioners for a day of scholarly insight.

Best of all, every registrant will receive a copy of Nichols' and Moise's brand new 2013 Supplement to The South Carolina Law of Torts, Fourth Edition by Professors Pat Hubbard and Bob Felix. If you practice personal injury or tort law in South Carolina, this is a program and book you cannot afford to miss!

ABOUT THE BOOK

The South Carolina Law of Torts, 2013 Cumulative Supplement by John S. Nichols and E. Scott Moise

The 2013 Supplement includes research current through August 31, 2013. It updates the Fourth Edition of The South Carolina Law of Torts, Fourth Edition by Professor F. Patrick Hubbard and Professor Robert L. Felix, copyright 2011. Each attendee of the 2014 South Carolina Tort Law Update will receive a copy of the 2013 Supplement as part of the course materials.

MCLE/JCLE/LEPR CREDIT

This program qualifies for 6.0 MCLE credit hours, including up to 1.0 LEPR credit hour.
