

Sunday, January 23, 2011

9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Breakfast Ethics

2.0 MCLE Credit Hours and 2.0 LEPR Credit Hours

Ethics 2.0: Ethics in the Age of E-Mail, Texting and Social Networking will address new ethical questions and issues arising out of the both the increasing dependence of attorneys on technology both in their practices and in their personal lives, as well potential ethical or malpractice traps that arise from clients' and/or witnesses' reliance on electronic communications. The program will include both an overview of the current developments in the area of ethics and technology, as well as hypotheticals designed to identify ethical minefields created by the increased reliance on technology.

9:00 a.m.

Breakfast Begins

9:30 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Ethics 2.0: Ethics in the Age of E-Mail, Texting and Social Networking

Karen Luchka, Columbia

Thomas E. Spahn, McLean, Virginia

Moderator: Carl L. Solomon, Columbia