FOR THE CONSUMER LAW SECTION OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA BAR

ARTICLE I

Name and Purpose

Section 1. This Section shall be known as the Consumer Law Section of the South Carolina Bar.

Section 2. The purpose of this section shall be to promote a greater understanding among members of the South Carolina Bar and the general public about consumer law issues and, to that end, further the development of consumer law; to stimulate and encourage the study of consumer law; and to simplify and improve the application of justice in the field of consumer law.

ARTICLE II

Membership

Section 1. Each member of the Section shall pay to the South Carolina Bar annual Section dues of $20.00. The Council, at any regular meeting, may change the annual Section dues to the extent determined necessary. Any such change in Section dues must be approved by the House of Delegates of the South Carolina Bar. Any member of the South Carolina Bar may upon request and payment of dues for the current year be enrolled as a member of this Section. Thereafter, said dues shall be paid in advance each year, beginning on the January 1 next succeeding each enrollment. Any member of this Section whose annual dues shall be more than seven months past due shall thereupon cease to be a member of this Section. Members so enrolled and whose dues are so paid shall constitute the membership of this Section. Anyone becoming a new member after November 1st of any year shall, upon payment of one full year's dues, be credited as paid through December 31st of the following year.

Section 2. Voting and privileges of the floor at any meeting of the Section shall be limited by the Bylaws of the South Carolina Bar to members as determined by the membership list, certified to the Section Secretary, by the Executive Director, such list to be open for inspection at any meeting for which it is certified.

ARTICLE III

Officers and Council

Section 1. The officers of this Section shall be a Chair, a Chair Elect, and a Secretary.

Section 2. There shall be a Council, the voting membership of which shall consist of the Chair, Chair-Elect, Secretary, Immediate Past Chair, and the Section Delegate, together with six "general members" to be elected as hereinafter provided.

Section 3. The Chair-Elect and Secretary shall be nominated and elected, in manner hereinafter provided, to hold office for one year beginning July 1 and ending June 30 and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified.

Section 4. At the first annual meeting, six Council members will be elected, two for a three-year term, two for two-year terms and two for a one-year term by express designation upon nomination. Thereafter, two general members of the Council will be elected in a manner hereafter provided for terms of office to begin the following July 1. General members may not serve successive terms as general members.

Section 5. Any vacancy existing in membership on the Council shall be filled by the Council. Such replacement member shall serve only to the end of the term to which his or her predecessor was elected.

Section 6. If any elected member of the Council shall fail to attend three successive meetings of the Council, and such failure has not been excused for cause by the Chair or the majority vote of the Council, the Chair may by letter to all Council members declare such member to have automatically resigned and he or she shall be replaced for his or her unexpired term as provided in Section 5 of this Article.

Section 7. At the end of his or her term, the Chair-Elect shall automatically assume the office of Chair, and thereupon the immediately retiring Chair shall become and remain a member of the Council for the ensuing year.

ARTICLE IV Nomination and Election

Section 1. Not later than January 15th of each year, the Council shall meet and nominate such Officers, Council Members, and Section Delegate as are scheduled to be elected by the members. The nominations proposed shall be by the concurring vote of not less than a majority of the members of the Council, and shall be published not later than the February issue of the South Carolina Bar News, or otherwise mailed or communicated to the membership through U.S. mail, email, posting to the Website generally accessible to the membership, or any other method permissible under the South Carolina Bar rules and policies.

Section 2. At the completion of a term, the Immediate Past Chair continuing as a member of the Section in good standing shall become the Section Delegate to the House of Delegates for a one (1) year term. If for any reason an Immediate Past Chair cannot serve, a nominee for Section Delegate to the House of Delegates may be nominated and elected in the same manner as Council Members. Any Section Delegate to the House of Delegates may be elected to succeed himself or herself.

Section 3. Not later than April 15 each year, not less than ten (10) members in good standing of the Section may file by mail with the Chair a petition containing signatures and printed names and addresses, nominating a candidate for one or more of the offices to be filled. Such petitions must be accompanied by the written consent of any person nominated. Nominations will be closed on April 16 each year.

Section 4. If there is only one nominee for any office or position, such nominee shall be considered automatically elected at the time the nominations are closed. Should there be two or more nominations for any office, ballots containing the names of all nominees for each contested office shall be distributed no later than April 30 to all members of the Section in good standing. All ballots must be returned to the Bar, postmarked no later than May 15. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. If two candidates receive an equal number of the votes cast, the Council in office at the time of the election shall, by majority vote, declare the winner.

It shall not, however, authorize commitments or contracts which shall exceed the estimated receipts from dues, sales of Section publications, and appropriations of the Section for such fiscal year; provided, however, that the balance of the reserve fund credited to the Section shall be available for use by Council.
