Charleston, SC

As Stasmayer's President, David Stasaitis is responsible for business growth and law firm technology strategy. He co-founded Stasmayer, Inc., with Richard Krenmayer in 2003 while pursuing his undergraduate degree at the University of Massachusetts. After 23 years in business Stasmayer is recognized as one of the top Managed Services Provider in South Carolina and has been listed on the Inc. 5000 and MSP 501 multiple times.

As an IT expert for the legal industry, Stasaitis oversees development of IT solutions for law firms including law practice management, IT support, IT Security, A.I., Compliance and Managed Services. He is a former Amicus Attorney certified consultant and one of the first Gold Clio Certified Consultants in the world. A relationship he has had for 15 years.

David also appeared in over 60 continuing legal education technology videos (CLEs) and presentations with the South Carolina Bar Association and other Bar Associations including "Shhh...I was hacked and can't tell anyone," "Cloud Computing Solutions For Lawyers", "60 Tech Tips in 60 Minutes", and "Getting Answers for Making Tech Choices in the Set Up of a New Law Firm". He is a guest speaker at the Charleston School of Law in the Law Practice Management Courses. He has also presented for the South Carolina Bar, Dorchester Bar, Charleston Bar, the South Carolina Federal Bar Association, Mecklenburg County Bar, the National Association of Bankruptcy Trustees, and nationally for Clio.

He first became interested in computers through the gaming industry in 1996. In the past, Stasaitis worked as a Network and System Administrator and System Analyst as well as web and applications developer.

Stasaitis holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Information Systems from the University of Massachusetts in Dartmouth. In his free time, he enjoys spending time with his wife, son, and daughter. He also enjoys watching and playing basketball with his kids, camping in his RV and traveling.

Richard Krenmayer

Stasmayer, INC

Charleston, SC

Richard Krenmayer is the Co-Founder and CEO of Stasmayer, Incorporated, a Managed IT and IT Security company. He attended the University of Massachusetts Dartmouth with his business partner, David Stasaitis, where they both received a B.S. in Business Information Systems and started Stasmayer.

As cybersecurity continues to evolve and come to the forefront of everyone's mind in business, Rick has given multiple speeches and CLEs to provide a call to action on the subject. He is also a co-author for the South Carolina BAR's Paralegal Survival Guide having written the section on cybersecurity.

In his other life, Rick is a professional songwriter and performer since age 6, enjoys traveling to new places around the world, being a weather hobbyist, reading lots of books, speaking other languages and always learning more, all while raising his two sons, who's interest in machines dwarfs his own interest in business and technology.

Brooks Derrick

Brooks Derrick Accident & Injury Lawyers

Simpsonville, SC

Hi. I'm Brooks Derrick. I'm a lawyer, a nerd when it comes to technology, and I love people. I believe that people deserve a lawyer that thoroughly explains things and keeps them completely informed. If you ever have any questions about your case, I will always take the time to talk to you and give you an honest and candid assessment of where things stand.
