

The Criminal Law of South Carolina

Sixth Edition

Table of Contents

Chapter I General Principles of Criminal Law

Introduction	1
A. Mental State	1
1. Alternative Approaches to Mental State	1
a. Specific Intent and General Intent	1
b. The Hierarchical Approach: Purpose, Knowledge, Recklessness, Negligence, and Strict Liability	2
2. How to Determine What Mental State Is Required.	4
3. Particular Types of Mental States	5
a. Purposeful or Intentional Conduct	5
b. Willfulness	9
c. Knowledge	10
d. Unintentional Conduct: Recklessness or Criminal Negligence and Simple Negligence	12
4. Strict and Vicarious Liability	15
a. Strict Liability Offenses	15
b. Vicarious Liability	17
5. Problems of Disparity Between Mental State and Consequences of Act; “Transferred Intent”	18
a. Unintended Victim	18
b. Intended Victim, Unintended Degree of Harm	20
c. Unintended Type of Harm	20
B. The Act	22
1. Voluntary Nature of the Act; Omissions; the Act of Possession	22
a. Voluntary Nature of the Act	22
b. Omissions	23

Table of Contents

c. The Act of Possession	24
2. Related Acts and Multiple Charges	27
C. Classification of Offenses	30
1. Felonies and Misdemeanors	30
a. Felonies Distinguished from Misdemeanors	30
b. Distinctions Between Felonies and Misdemeanors	33
2. Common Law and Statutory Offenses	37
3. Lesser Included Offenses	41
a. Basic Rules	41
b. Other Representative Greater and Lesser Included Offenses	47
4. Moral Turpitude	49
5. Violent Crime	53
6. No Parole Offenses	57
7. “Most Serious Offenses” and “Serious Offenses”	57
D. Burden of Proof and Presumptions	62
1. Burden of Proof	62
a. The State’s Burden and the Presumption of Innocence	62
b. Beyond a Reasonable Doubt	63
c. Reasonable Doubt and Individual Elements of an Offense	66
d. Affirmative Defenses	67
e. Statutory Exemptions or Exceptions	68
f. Validity of Prior Convictions Used to Enhance Punishment	69
2. Presumptions	70
a. The Basic Rules	70
b. Harmless Error	76
E. Jurisdiction	78
1. Basic Rules	78
a. Geographic Concerns	78
b. Subject Matter Jurisdiction vs. Jurisdiction	79
c. Sufficiency of the Indictment	82
2. The State Grand Jury	83

Chapter II Offenses Against the Person

A. Homicide	85
1. Basic Issues	85
a. Types of Homicides and Definitions	85
b. Corpus Delicti	88
c. Human Being	89

Table of Contents

d. Causation	90
e. Venue and Jurisdiction	95
2. Murder and Attempted Murder	96
a. Basic Elements of Murder	96
b. Related and Lesser Included Offenses	98
c. Malice Aforethought	101
d. Felony Murder	117
e. Capital Murder	124
3. Voluntary Manslaughter	199
a. Definition, Rationale, and Relation to Murder	199
b. The Focus of Manslaughter: Heat of Passion on Adequate Provocation	203
4. Involuntary Manslaughter, Reckless Homicide, and Felony DUI	218
a. Alternative Offenses Concerning Involuntary Homicides	218
b. An Important Historical Digression: State v. Barnett and the Traditional Definition of Negligence in Involuntary Manslaughter	220
c. Current State of the Law	221
5. Lynching / Assault and Battery by Mob	230
6. Homicide by Child Abuse	232
B. Assault and Battery	236
1. The Statutory and Common Law Crimes	236
2. Common Law Assault and Battery	240
a. Intentional Creation of Apprehension of Bodily Harm	241
b. Attempted Battery Type Assaults	241
c. Mens Rea	242
d. The Act	243
e. Relationship to Other Offenses	245
3. Assault and Battery of a High and Aggravated Nature and Other Degrees of Assault and Battery	246
a. Common Law History and the New Statutory Crimes	246
b. The Elements of ABHAN	250
4. Attempted Murder - Formerly Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill	253
a. The Elements of Attempted Murder	253
b. The Problem of Mens Rea	255
5. Related Statutory Offenses	256
a. Resisting Arrest	256
b. Criminal Domestic Violence	257
c. Spousal Sexual Battery	259

Table of Contents

d.	Abuse or Neglect of Vulnerable Adults	259
e.	Felony DUI Causing Great Bodily Injury	260
f.	Felony Failure to Stop for School Bus	260
g.	Child Abuse, Child Endangerment and Related Offenses	261
h.	Stalking	262
i.	Hazing	263
j.	Stink Bombs	263
k.	Knowingly Exposing Others to HIV or Other Sexually Transmitted Diseases	263
l.	Affray	264
m.	Assaults with Firearms	264
n.	Threatening a Public Official	265
o.	Carjacking	265
p.	Assisting a Suicide	266
q.	Failure to Report Medical Treatment for Gunshot Wounds	266
r.	Desecration of Human Remains	266
C.	Criminal Sexual Assault	266
1.	Introduction and Common Law Offenses	266
a.	Common Law Offenses Still in Effect	266
b.	Common Law Rape	268
c.	Assault with Intent to Ravish	270
d.	Statutory Rape and Its Common Law Antecedents	271
2.	Current Statutes	274
a.	Criminal Sexual Conduct	274
b.	Sexual Offenses with Minors	286
3.	Evidentiary, Procedural and Miscellaneous Issues	294
a.	Court Order Examination of Child Victim	294
b.	Rape Trauma Syndrome, Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder and Repressed Memory Syndrome	294
c.	Hearsay Exception	297
d.	Evidence of Other Bad Acts	299
e.	Presenting the Testimony of a Young Victim of a Sexual Assault	302
f.	Corroboration	306
g.	Evidence of Victim's Prior Sexual Conduct	307
h.	Victim is Legal Spouse of Defendant	310
i.	Exceptions to Marital Privilege Regarding Spousal Testimony	311
j.	Specificity of Indictment and Proof as to Time of Assault	311
k.	Mandatory Testing of Sexual Offenders for Hepatitis B and HIV; Testing of Victim	312

Table of Contents

l. DNA Analysis and Other Scientific Testing of the Accused’s Body Tissue	313
m. Incapacity	314
n. Registration of Sexual Offenders	314
o. Other Evidentiary Issues	315
p. Sexually Violent Predator Act	315
q. Satellite Monitoring	318
D. Kidnapping	319
1. The Basic Statutory Offense	319
2. Elements	320
3. Relationship to Other Offenses	322
E. Robbery	325
1. Unarmed Robbery	325
a. Basic Issues	325
b. Related Offenses	328
2. Armed Robbery	329
a. The Statute and Basic Issues	329
b. Punishment	329
c. “While Armed with a”	330
d. Related Offenses and Other Weapons Offenses	334

CHAPTER III Offenses Against Property

A. Introduction	339
1. Relationship Between Traditional Theft Offenses	339
2. Effect of the Crime Classification Act of 1993 On Punishment for Theft Offenses	340
3. Restitution	341
B. Larceny	342
1. Introduction: Elements and Lesser Included Offenses	342
2. Trespassory	343
3. Taking and Carrying Away	346
4. Property	347
a. Property Subject to Larceny	347
b. The Distinction Between Grand and Petit Larceny and the Valuation of Property	348
5. Of Another	350
6. Intent to Steal	351
7. Procedural Issues	352
8. Privily Stealing	354
9. Failure to Return Rented Objects and Other Specialized Larceny Offenses	355

Table of Contents

C. Breach of Trust	357
1. Relationship to Larceny	357
2. The Trust	360
3. Fraudulent Intention	361
4. Other Issues	361
D. Embezzlement	362
E. False Pretenses	365
1. The Statute and Its Penalties	366
2. False Representation of Fact	367
3. Intent to Defraud	368
4. The Victim Must Be Deceived	368
5. Must the Victim Pass Title to the Property to the Wrongdoer?	369
6. The Nature of the Property	370
7. Related Offenses	371
F. Shoplifting	371
G. Financial Transaction Card Crimes	375
H. Receiving Stolen Goods	377
1. The Current Statute	377
2. Elements	378
a. The Goods Must Have Been Stolen By Another	378
b. Goods Must Still Be “Stolen” at Time of Receipt	379
c. Knowing or Having Reason to Believe That the Goods Are Stolen	380
d. At Least Under Pre-July 1, 1993 Law, the Receipt Must Have Been with a Fraudulent Intent	382
3. Sentence and Procedural Issues	383
4. Related Offense of Failure of Retailer to Provide Record of Source of Merchandise	385
I. Forgery	385
1. Elements of the Offense	385
2. Materiality	387
3. Uttering	388
4. Intent to Defraud	388
5. Penalties	389
6. Related Offenses	390
J. Fraudulent Checks	390
1. Relationship to Other Offenses	390
2. Scope and Elements	392
3. Statutory Presumptions	394
4. The Effect of Restitution: Permissive Grounds for Dismissal; Sentence, Suspension and Expungement	396

Table of Contents

K. Burglary and Related Offenses	398
1. Common Law Burglary and Early Statutory Offenses	398
2. The Current Burglary Statute	399
a. First Degree Burglary	400
b. Second Degree Burglary	402
c. Third Degree Burglary	403
d. Relationships Between the Three Degrees	403
3. Elements of Burglary	404
a. Entering Without Consent	404
b. Dwelling House and Building	405
c. Of Another	409
d. Nighttime	410
e. With Intent	411
f. Breaking	413
4. Related Offenses	415
a. Burglary Tools	415
b. Criminal Trespass	416
c. Breaking Into Motor Vehicles; Entering House or Vessel	417
L. Arson and Related Offenses	418
1. Common Law Arson	418
2. The Arson Statutes	418
3. Attempts to Commit Arson and Actually Committing It	420
4. Property Subject to Arson	421
5. The Requisite Mens Rea	422
6. Proof and Procedural Matters	423
M. Malicious Injury to Property And Related Offenses	424
N. Blackmail And Extortion	425
O. Computer Crime	427

Chapter IV Anticipatory Offenses and Parties to Criminal Activity

A. Introduction	429
B. Conspiracy	430
1. The Basics	430
2. The Agreement	432
3. Parties to a Conspiracy	434
a. Proving Individual Membership in a Conspiracy	434
b. Membership Based on One's Having Supplied Goods to the Conspiracy	436
c. Plurality Problems	437

Table of Contents

4. The Objective	439
5. Scope, Duration, and Withdrawal; Problems of Proof	440
6. Vicarious Liability	446
7. Procedure	448
a. Jurisdiction and Venue	448
b. Statements and Acts of Co-Conspirators	448
c. Joinder and Severance	450
8. Sentencing and Additional Conspiracy Statutes	451
a. The Basic Statute	451
b. Controlled Substances	451
c. Kidnapping	452
d. Miscellaneous Conspiracy Statutes	452
C. Solicitation	453
1. Basic Definition and Relationship to Other Anticipatory Offenses	453
2. Elements	455
3. Specialized Solicitation Statutes	456
D. Attempt	456
1. Introduction	456
2. The Act	459
3. The Mental Element	462
4. Impossibility	463
E. Parties to Criminal Offenses	465
1. Definitions and Basic Elements	465
a. Accessory Before The Fact and Principals	466
b. Accessory After the Fact	471
c. Misprision of Felony, Compounding Crime, and Criminal Acts On Behalf of Corporations	473
2. Responsibility for Natural Consequences of Principal First's Act	474
3. Procedural Issues	476
a. Indictment	476
b. Venue	477
c. Mutuality of Convictions	477
d. Uncorroborated Testimony of Accomplice	480
e. Presumptions	480

Chapter V Other Offenses

A. Contraband	481
1. Possession	481
a. Knowing Possession	481

Table of Contents

b.	Proving Possession	483
c.	Mere Presence Charge	490
2.	Possession with Intent to Distribute	491
a.	Inference From Amount Possessed	491
b.	Use of Prior Conduct	493
c.	Lesser Included Offense and King Instructions	494
d.	Other Issues	496
e.	Statutes	498
f.	Punishments	499
3.	Special Statutes	504
a.	Possession, Distribution and Trafficking in Methamphetamine Cocaine Base and Ephedrine Type Stimulants	504
b.	Accommodation Distribution	506
c.	Conditional Discharge	506
d.	Trafficking in Drugs	507
e.	Conspiracy and Attempts	514
f.	Distribution to Persons Under Eighteen	514
g.	Distribution of Drugs Within Proximity of a School	515
h.	Defrauding a Drug Screen	516
i.	Forfeiture	517
j.	Money Laundering	520
k.	Drug Induced Crime	521
4.	Sentencing Charts	522
a.	Possession: §§ 44-53-370(d) and 44-53-375(A) (Supp. 2012).	522
b.	Manufacturing, Distributing, Possession with Intent to Distribute §§ 44-53-370(a),(b)&(d)(4) and 44-53-375(B) (Supp. 2012)	523
c.	Trafficking in Drugs § 44-53-370(e) (Supp. 2012)	524
5.	Common Controlled Substances and Their Synonyms	535
B.	Offenses Against Public Justice	536
1.	Perjury, Subornation of Perjury and False Swearing	536
2.	Bribery, Corruption of Jurors and the Like	538
3.	Contempt	543
4.	Obstruction of Justice, Resisting Arrest, and Related Offenses	547
a.	Obstruction of Justice	547
b.	Resisting Arrest	549
5.	Misconduct in Office	552
6.	Aiding or Permitting Escape	552
7.	Escape	553
8.	Taking Hostages	555

Table of Contents

C. Crimes Against Morality And Decency	555
1. Introduction	555
2. Adultery and Fornication	556
3. Bigamy	556
4. Incest	557
5. Seduction and Related Offenses	557
6. Prostitution	558
7. Promoting and Participating in the Prostitution of a Minor	560
8. Buggery	561
9. Indecent Exposure	562
10. Lewd Exposure of Private Parts	564
11. Obscenity	566
12. Adult Business Zoning Ordinances	571
13. Materials Harmful to Minors	572
14. Communicating an Obscene Message to Another	575
D. Traffic Offenses	575
1. Introduction	575
2. Driving Under the Influence and Driving With An Unlawful Alcohol Concentration	576
a. DUI Generally	576
b. Driving With An Unlawful Alcohol Concentration (DUAC)	578
c. Corpus Delicti	579
d. Miranda Warnings	582
e. Multiple Offenses	583
f. License Suspension	585
g. Breathalyzer	585
h. Refusing the Breathalyzer	590
i. Blood Testing	592
j. Assistance of the Arresting Officer	594
k. Other Testing	597
l. Videotaping	598
m. Punishment for DUI & DUAC	600
3. Felony Driving Under the Influence	603
4. Drivers Under 21 Years of Age	603
5. Child Endangerment	604
6. Driving Under Suspension (DUS) and DUB by Habitual Offenders	604
7. Boating Safety and Boating Under the Influence (BUI)	605
E. Other Miscellaneous Crimes	606
1. Intimidation by Use of an Incendiary (Cross Burning)	606
2. Noise Ordinances	607

Table of Contents

3. Disorderly Conduct, Loitering, Peeping Tom and Disturbing Schools	608
4. Threatening Remarks	611
5. Illegal Coin-operated Video Machines and Gambling.	611
Chapter VI
Defenses
A. Introduction	615
B. Self-Defense	615
1. Burden of Proof	615
2. When Are Self-Defense Instructions Required?	618
3. Deadly Force or Non-Deadly Force: Important Distinctions	620
4. Elements: The Basic Instruction	621
a. Self-Defense Claimant Must Have Been Without Fault	622
b. Belief in Imminent Danger or the Actuality of Such Danger	626
c. A Requirement of Reasonableness	628
d. The Duty to Retreat Before Using Deadly Force	629
5. The Battered Woman Syndrome	631
6. Imperfect Self-Defense	635
C. Defense of Others	636
D. Defense of Property	639
1. Statutory Defense of Property Under Citizen's Arrest Statute	639
2. Common Law Defense of Property	639
3. Protection of Persons and Property Act	643
E. Resisting Unlawful Arrest and Excessive Force During a Lawful Arrest	644
F. Citizen's Arrest	646
G. Insanity	649
1. The Definition of Insanity	649
a. The Basic South Carolina Definition	649
b. Volitional Aspects of Insanity	651
c. Mental Disease or Defect	652
d. Multiple Personality Disorder	653
e. Relevance of Evidence of Mental Disorders in Contexts Other than the Insanity Defense	654
2. Guilty But Mentally Ill (GBMI)	654
a. The Basic South Carolina Definition	654
b. Effect of the Verdict	656
c. Procedures	657
3. Competency	658
a. Competency to Stand Trial	658
b. Competency to Be Executed	665

Table of Contents

4. Procedures	665
a. Is There an Insanity Issue?	665
b. Jury Instructions	666
c. Competency Determination	667
d. Insanity Determination	669
e. Inculpatory Statements While Committed and Related Issues	670
f. Disclosure of Mental Health Examinations	674
g. Preparation of Defense	675
h. Proof	676
i. Lay Witnesses	677
j. The State's Proof	678
H. Incapacity of a Child	678
I. Intoxication	679
1. Voluntary Intoxication	679
2. Involuntary Intoxication	681
J. Unconsciousness or Automatism	682
K. Entrapment	684
1. The Basic Definitions	684
2. The Due Process Alternative	689
L. Duress and Necessity	690
M. Mistake of Fact or Law	694
N. Consent	701
O. Alibi	702
P. Law Enforcement	703
Q. Accident	704
R. Apparent Authority	705
S. Third-Party Guilt	706
Table of Cases	709
South Carolina Codes	776
Index	799