3. Nomination Narrative (required) – Why does this nominee deserve this award?

Please attach an explanation of how the nominee meets one or more of the criteria for the South Carolina Bar Pro Bono Award as delineated in the attached Guidelines. This section must contain specific information detailing the nature of the nominee's pro bono contribution. It can be for a single case or project or for an accumulation of assistance over a period of time. If possible, identify who has benefited from the service. This can include description of case(s) or project(s); amount of time spent on the matter(s); and the significance this work may have not just to the individual client(s) but also to the community as a whole. It will assist when considering the nominees if, whenever possible, the nominator provides specific documentation or other materials that demonstrate the nominee's pro bono contribution, including news articles, brochures, hours spent, and other documentation.

Your nomination packet should include detailed information about actual work. This can include a particular case or issue worked on, how it impacts the client(s), and delivery of service to the community or a particular group of clients. Outline when this work was performed, the amount of effort expended in the undertaking, and whether the case or work could have been undertaken without the nominee. If known, indicate which, if any, cases the nominee accepted from the SC Bar Pro Bono Program. All of this information will assist in considering the nominees.

4. References: Your nomination packet should also include the names and contact information of up to three persons, who, if asked, could provide support and information on the nominee. They may be the same persons listed in Section 4, below.
