

Follow Up and Reflection
That's Not Fair! Where's My Due Process?!

Re-examine the following statements. Did your response change? If so, how?

- 1. You or your possessions can NEVER be searched without a warrant.

My response changed | did not change because...

- 2. The IV Amendment guarantees that “the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial”. This means that as soon as you are arrested, you go to jail.

My response changed | did not change because...

- 3. Serious offenses such as murder are always tried in the Supreme Court.

My response changed | did not change because...

- 4. If you don't like a judge's verdict, you can appeal his or her decision to another court to get a different decision.

My response changed | did not change because...